Echo® Plate Audit Software
Acoustic validation of sample libraries

The latest application for Echo liquid handlers takes advantage of acoustic analysis of sample properties to validate and monitor sample libraries.

- Quickly analyze critical sample properties
- Compare the composition and volume of each sample over time
- Create custom rules to qualify samples for downstream processes
Set volume and composition thresholds for each fluid type audited

Use custom rules to identify plates with errors or warnings in Tempo™ software protocols